Here and there throughout the land you'll notice along the water courses signs like this: "High Water Mark" (with the date given).

Usually it's 5, 10 or 15 years previous to the time you're looking at the sign.

The flood tide of business in this store has risen higher each year than that of its predecessor. The incoming stream of business for 1906 has already deeply submerged the record of 1905.

This week will undoubtedly be the greatest in our history. Shop early in the week and early in the day.

Long Gloves

Fashion says "long gloves for women," despite the fact that coat sleeves come to the wrist. Waist sleeves, you know, stop in many cases at the elbow. Men will likely buy gloves for wife, mother or sweetheart this week.

May we give just one or two points of information and suggestion:

Glaze Gloves are the finished glazed skin—the most popular now.

Suede Gloves are the undressed skins, or dull finish.

Buy your Long Gloves at Miller & Rhoads, where the sizes and shades are always complete. It may be necessary to exchange the gloves after Christmas.
